

The James Merrill House Committee and the Stonington Historical Society present

A POET at HOME

James Merrill in Stonington Village

RACHEL CARLEY
HISTORIC PRESERVATIONIST

Saturday, May 17, 5pm

LA GRUA CENTER in STONINGTON, CT

Drawing on her research, award-winning writer and exhibition curator Rachel Carley will discuss the ways in which James Merrill's deep connection to Stonington shaped his work. She will also touch on the history of the eccentric Victorian building where Merrill lived and worked, now one of Connecticut's great literary landmarks.

The event is free and open to the public. A reception will follow. For more information go to writer@jamesmerrillhouse.org

Image courtesy of the Stonington Historical Society.

James Merrill

WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAM & MUSEUM